All About January Discover This Month

SS Lane Victory

Merchant mariners were instrumental in the Allies winning World War II. They suffered the greatest rate of casualties of any of the services. And their service and history extends to today.

SS Lane Victory is one of the few remaining ships from the WWII era. It was built in San Pedro and served from WWII through Vietnam. And its crew heroically saved nearly 8,000 people during the Korean Conflict.

Today, SS Lane Victory is a memorial and museum. You'll find lots of great displays and artifacts not only about the ship and other Victory and Liberty ships, but also about the Port of Los Angeles and its history.

It's a great place for special events.

SS Lane Victory is located at 3600 S. Miner Street, Berth 49 on the Waterfront.

CATALINA

The Island of Romance And adventure, family fun, and more

*Twenty- six miles across the sea
Santa Catalina is a-waitin' for me*

Santa Catalina, the island of romance, romance, romance, romance

--The Four Preps, "Catalina Island"

Fresh air, clear water, and a casual atmosphere. But it's really just 22 miles off the San Pedro and Peninsula coast, and Catalina Island is, as they say, "a world apart." And it's well worth a visit because there's so much to see and do. The weather cooperates year-round for all your adventures.

There's Avalon, the town on the island, rustic Two Harbors, and a whole lot of natural land. There's even bison (which stayed after a silent film shoot on the island in 1924 or so), but no traffic signals.

Getting There

It's easy to get to Catalina Island from the mainland. The best way is on Catalina Express' fast and comfortable boats. The company has been serving the island for more than 30 years and sails daily from San Pedro, Long Beach, and Dana Point. Catalina Express serves both Avalon and Two Harbors (but not on all sailings, so check the schedule).

It takes about an hour and along the way you might see some of the island's famous flying fish or dolphin.

You can also take a helicopter from Long Beach, San Pedro, or Burbank or John Wayne Airports. The flights take about 15 minutes from either San Pedro or Long Beach.

Catalina Island has an airport and you can fly your own plane in. Or you can sail your own boat and tie up at either Avalon Harbor or Two Harbors. There are also boats available for charter if you want a special voyage.

Direct from San Pedro--Catalina Express offers voyages from San Pedro, Long Beach, and Dana Point to Avalon and Two Harbors on fast, comfortable boats. The trip takes about an hour from San Pedro and provides great views of LA Harbor both inbound and outbound.

What to Do

First, what you can't do: You can't get bored on Catalina Island. From romantic strolling, shopping, culture, to hair-raising adventure, Catalina offers a range of experiences.

The really popular thing to do is the Zip Line Eco Tour. There are give separate zip lines that descent from 600 feet above sea level – zipping along 300 feet above the canyon floor. One run is 1,100 feet long.

Along the way you'll stop at several eco stations where hosts present information about different aspects of Catalina nature and history. The whole tour takes about two hours and advance reservations are highly recommended.

Discounts are often available. Check the website before you go at www.VisitCatalinaIsland.com

The definitive resources for information on what to do, see, where to stay, dine, and every little bit of detail about this destination is the Catalina Island Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau. Its website has all the information you need and you can book your room and get great deals right from there. Take a look at www.CatalinaChamber.com

Looking for Adventure?

You might try fly boarding. You literally fly over Avalon Harbor as a guide pulls you on a jet ski. No backflips allowed, though. It's available through Catalina Adventure Tours.

Catalina is unlike any place in the world and the Outback Journey takes you in an open-air safari vehicle for a guided eco-expedition to the outback areas and coastal canyons, where you're like to see many of the native wildlife including Channel Island fox, bald eagles, and those great bison.

If you want something a bit more relaxing, you might consider the Avalon Scenic Tour. It's billed as a perfect introduction to the town of Avalon. The tour goes along the beachfront, up the hillsides, and through the heart of the historic town. It's 50 minutes long and runs daily between 11:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. It's available through the Santa Catalina Island Company.

And it's the perfect place for families. Activities include miniature golf, hiking, biking, museums, beaches, boating and kayaking, and lots more. The Descanso Beach Club as a rock climbing wall. Book it through the Catalina Island Company.

And kayaking is something great for children. Paddle out under your own power to enjoy nature along Catalina Island's coastline. Stop at Frog Rock for a swim in the ocean. Available from Catalina Tours.

Your Catalina Island journey begins with us.

CATALINA ISLAND

Only on Catalina

There are some great activities that are distinctly Catalina. For example, you can see the famous bison that were brought to the island in the 1920s as extras in a film being shot there. They never left and still roam free on Catalina Conservancy lands. Take an eco tour to see them and other wildlife on the island.

In 1966, Doris Day starred in a movie named "The Glass Bottom Boat." The glass bottom boat is a real thing. It's been updated, but still gives you an up-close look at the sea life around the island in a 40-minute tour. Reservations are available through the Catalina Island Company or Catalina Adventure Tours.

Catalina tile is world renowned for its artistry. And Silver Canyon Pottery offers the Catalina Tile Experience that lets you make your own Catalina tile. No experience necessary.

Two different experiences are available. In the basic introduction you get to make one souvenir tile; during the in-depth experience you'll make two tiles and learn about Catalina tile and the island's history with an artist.

If you like food, Catalina has great choices. And Catalina Food Tours is an interesting and fun way to explore what's on offer.

It offers its original Avalon Tasting & Cultural Walking Tour plus the Catalina Happy Hour Tour and custom and private food experiences.

Getting Around

Avalon is only about a mile square, so getting around to all the sites is easy. Most people walk. But you can also rent one of Catalina's iconic golf carts or a bicycle. There is bus service and taxis are available. Taxis operate from 7 a.m.-midnight and charge flat rates.

The bus runs through central Avalon from the Cabrillo Mole to Casino Way and up the canyon to the Wrigley Memorial and Botanic Garden. There's also dial-a-ride service for those age 65 and older and people with disabilities.

Welcome Cruise Passengers

Going on a cruise? About to take a cruise? Just got off a cruise? Would love to take a cruise?

You're in luck. San Pedro and the Port of Los Angeles happen to be two of the best things about cruising to or from the West Coast.

There is plenty to see and do in the area and it's a great place to stay if you want to be convenient to all of Southern California and its attractions. So we hope you've planned on a few extra days before or after your cruise. (And if you're traveling to join a cruise, you will want to consider arriving a day or more early; it just makes good sense—you don't have to worry about travel delays and you can begin your voyage rested.)

For those driving in, the local hotels offer economical park and cruise packages that allow you to leave your car at the hotel for the duration of your cruise and stay a night or more before and/or after your cruise.

Catalina Island Museum is the showcase

If you like history and culture, you'll certainly enjoy the Catalina Island Museum. It's a history that's more than 8,000 years old and includes the Chicago Cubs, Hollywood, and much more.

The museum is housed in its new Ada Blanche Wrigley Schreiner Building, in the heart of Avalon. And you'll find outstanding new shows, along with permanent exhibitions that showcase all of Catalina Island.

Through April 14 you can see Bird Park: An Aviary for Avalon's Celebrity Birds. This exhibit shows the attraction that was popular on the island between 1919 and 1966.

Another show features early Catalina paintings and you've got until January 27 to see it. When Sugar Loaf Stood: Early Catalina Paintings. Until its complete destruction in 1928, Sugar Loaf Rock was a defining geologic feature of Catalina Island's Avalon Bay.

Peter Shire is a renowned sculptor who graduated from the Chouinard Art Institute in Los Angeles and who has exhibited in Milan, Paris, Tokyo, and Sapporo. His works are in many public collections and museums worldwide.

And his installation will be on display until February at the Catalina Island Museum's Artists' Plaza and Schreiner Family Plaza.

You can see the history of Catalina in a year-round exhibition of photos, advertising art, and artifacts. Catalina Island's history dates back 8,000 years. But more recently it was home to the Chicago Cubs' spring training, Winston Churchill visited (and caught a big tuna), and it's been a favorite for Hollywood as a filming location and getaway location for stars.

The Catalina Island Museum is open daily from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., excepting some holidays.

There are lots of ways to get around.

The Historic Downtown is within walking distance of the Waterfront or you can take the trolley on weekends.

The Downtown Trolley operates on weekends between the Cruise Terminal, 6th and 7th Streets, and Pacific Avenue, CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles, SS Lane Victory, and a stop at Battleship Iowa.

DASH buses operate on routes throughout the greater San Pedro area, south as far as 25th Street and west to Western Avenue.

Commuter Express line 142 has direct service to the Downtown Long Beach Transit Center where you can catch the Blue Line train that travels to downtown Los Angeles and connects to most rail lines that run throughout the greater Los Angeles area. Catch it at Ports O' Call Village or at stops along 7th Street and Gaffey Street north of 7th Street.

Metro Transit buses operate several lines into, out of, and around San Pedro, mainly along 7th Street, Pacific Avenue, and Gaffey Street (although other streets are also served).

- Metro Route 205 runs between the San Pedro Waterfront and Rosa Parks Station
- Metro Route 246 operates between Pt. Fermin and the Harbor Gateway Transit Center
- Metro Route 344 provides service between Palos Verdes Drive South and the Harbor Gateway Transit Center
- Metro Express Route 450 goes from 21 Street and Pacific Avenue to Downtown Los Angeles
- Metro Route 550 operates between Little Company of Mary Hospital (at 7th and Patton Street) and Exposition Park (home to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, University of Southern California, and many museums)
- Metro Route 910/950X are Silver Line/Silver Line Express buses that operate between Pacific Avenue at 21st Street to the El Monte Station (with stops in Downtown Los Angeles)

Connections to Metrorail are available from Downtown Los Angeles's Metro Center and some buses stop at rail stations along their routes.

The Palos Verdes Transit Authority provides bus services around the Palos Verdes Peninsula, to San Pedro, and as far north and west as Redondo Beach

Metro Bike Share
