The Arts

The first Thursday of each month is a great start for the area's arts activities and events. That's when Downtown San Pedro hosts its monthly Art Walk. Galleries and studios are open, there's entertainment, and restaurants offer specials. It begins around 6 p.m. and is in the area between 4th and 9th Streets and Palos Verdes Street and Pacific Avenue. Visit the San Pedro Art Association's First Thursday Gallery at 437 W. 6th Street. There's a free tour from the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, 390 W. 7th Street. www.1stThursday.com. (This month the Art Walk is Thursday, June 6.)

San Pedro & Peninsula Visitor

Volume 5, Number 7 June 2019

San Pedro & Peninsula Visitor is published by Visit San Pedro, the independent tourism authority serving San Pedro, the Los Angeles Harbor and Palos Verdes Peninsula communities, and Catalina Island. On the cover—One of the great things about San Pedro is the legendary California weather, and that means year-round yacht racing on San Pedro Bay and the Catalina Channel. Be sure to read the story beginning on page 3 about how sailing is accessible to everyone. The cover photo was taken from the Los Angeles Yacht Club Committee Boat during this year's Opening Day Races. The boat on the right is Zapata II, owned and sailed by Sage Marie and LAYC Fleet Captain Kelly Patrick-Marie.

San Pedro's local theater company, Little Fish Theatre, has great shows. It's also the organization that produces the annual Shakespeare by the Sea series.

"Dead Accounts" is running until June 9, and the side-splitting "The Nerd" will be presented from July 3-28. And shows continue throughout the year.

Little Fish Theatre is located at 777 S. Centre Street, Downtown. 310-507-0269, www.LittleFishTheatre.org.

This year's Shakespeare by the Sea festival will present "The Comedy of Errors," opening June 13 and "Henry V," opening June 20. The plays are presented at a variety of locations throughout the area and admission is free. 310-217-7596, www.ShakespeareByTheSea.org.

Dining

Food from around the world

San Pedro Cafe, at 605 S. Pacific Avenue, is well-known (and well-loved) for breakfast and lunch. And now it's open for dinner Thursday through Sunday with a full menu that includes Croatian specialties like cabbage rolls and cro-mo (Croatian mostaccioli). It's right in the middle of Uptown Pacific Avenue and it's well worth a visit. www.WeLoveSPC.com.

It's hard to know where to start with Babouch Moroccan Cuisine. It brings an exotic and international flair to fun. That's where you'll find belly dancing. There's happy hour—and on Tuesdays it lasts all evening with drink and appetizer specials. The dinners are amazing with fresh, authentic ingredients masterfully prepared. It's convenient to all of San Pedro and the Peninsula at 810 S. Gaffey Street, San Pedro. 310-831-0246, www.BabouchMoroccan.com

And you'll feel like you've traveled to France when you dine at La Bouvette Wine Bistro. Newly-opened and already a hot spot. Find out why at 335 W. 7th Street, Downtown. 424-342-9840, www.LaBuvetteBistro.com

Nightlife

Jazz, jazz, and more jazz at The Whale & Ale, 327 W. 7th Street. On Friday nights you can hear The Paul Gormley Trio. On Saturday nights, Markus Carlton plays beautiful jazz guitar in the pub. Check it out at www.WhaleAndAle.com.

If you want a real San Pedro experience, definitely make it a point to visit God-mother's Saloon at 301 W. 7th Street, on the corner of Centre Street, Downtown. Music many nights. Nice people and fun times every night.

There's late night fun at San Pedro Brewing Company. Fridays are game night. And every Saturday is late night music. Sometimes a live local band and sometimes a hot DJ. It's at 331 W. 6th Street, Downtown. Call 310-831-5663 or visit www.SanPedroBrewing.com.

Discover This Month The Banning Museum

Find out how the "Father of Los Angeles Harbor" and his family lived during the days of the U.S. Civil War.

Phinneas Banning was a Union Army general and founder of the harbor at Wilmington who built a beautiful Greek Revival mansion in to demonstrate his confidence that the nation would endure.

And the mansion has endured as a museum in Banning Park. It's open to the public daily for tours. Its rooms are decorated as they were during the Banning family's residence there. The visitor center was once the family's schoolhouse. There's a livery on the grounds that's used as a museum and for special events.

Visit at 401 E. M Street, Wilmington.

GET OUT AND HAVE SOME FUN

On the Water

Want to Learn to Sail?

No boat, no problem! No experience, no problem!

Los Angeles Yacht Club is an official American Sailing Association sailing school. And that means it meets rigorous standards that are internationally recognized. Bring along your desire to become a good sailor.

And the reasonably-priced lessons are for all skill levels. So if you're starting out, you're covered. And if you've got some experience, you can become an expert. The courses cover sailing technique, boat handling, and safety.

From the 101 class that will teach to safely skipper a sloop-rigged keelboat in light to moderate winds and sea conditions to the 105 class that teaches you about navigation—and the two great intermediate classes—you'll learn what you need to become quite the able sailor.

Women On Water—a Supportive Environment

If you're a woman and you'd like to learn to sail in a supportive environment with other women,

Women on Water (WoW) is the place for you. WoW was founded within the Los Angeles Yacht Club to help women club members and guests to form bonds with one another as well as to enjoy sailing in an encouraging environment.

WoW meets several times a year for participants to learn sailing skills and about yachting. The sessions are paced and informative, so there is no pressure to learn quickly or to master these skills right away. WoW's goal is to not only teach sailing skills, but to provide women with a relaxing, fulfilling experience in the world of yachting. One of the greatest pleasures of sailing is gaining knowledge and confidence, and WoW wants to provide support and knowledge for just that.

Past sessions have celebrated with a Soul Food Sail, St. Patrick's Day Sail, and Sail & Tea. WoW has several events coming up, including a cruise to Howland's Landing on Catalina Island from June 28 to 30. So mark your calendars for this experience and check out all the WoW events on the LAYC website.

Learn All About the Ocean World at Cabrillo Marine Aquarium

Cabrillo Marine Aquarium has a spectacular setting, right next to Cabrillo Beach. And that, according to the Aquarium, makes it uniquely suited for the leadership role it has taken on in marine science, education, aquaculture research, and community recreation.

The Aquarium facility is historic, having been designed by noted architect Frank Gehry. But it's the work going on inside that is important and makes this a great day at the water.

It's home to a fun and informative series about grunion, little silver fish that spawn on the beaches of Southern California with predictable regularity.

You'll learn all about the fish and their habitat in the presentation that precedes the "run" (when the grunion come ashore) and then go out to see them. During a couple of the runs you'll be able to take some home (the experts will tell you when and how).

The Aquarium has been exhibiting Southern California's richly diverse local sea life since 1935. And today it takes the complex subjects of marine science to everyone with understandable and innovative exhibits.

Ever wonder where sand dollars or sea urchins come from and how they live? Want to know all about sharks? Cabrillo Marine Aquarium can tell you all that and much more.

The Aquarium is open Tuesday through Friday from noon to 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and closed on Mondays.

Take a Harbor Cruise

Head over to Shoreline Village in Long Beach and get the best harbor cruise in the region on Spirit Cruises.

The hour-long cruise, which currently sails on Saturdays and Sundays, will take you up close with all the interesting features of Long Beach Harbor, including right by the Queen Mary. You'll learn what those beautiful mysterious islands are in the harbor, and a lot more. And Spirit offers special evening dinner cruises regularly.

SS Lane Victory Is Real, Living Patriotic History

Did you know that Merchant Mariners suffered the greatest percentage of losses during World War II? You'll learn about real patriotism of these brave sailors at the SS Lane Victory. It's a real World War II era steamship that tells the Merchant Marine story and lots more history. It includes two outstanding museums in the ship's holds, with an impressive collection of ship models, including big builders' models, and the history of Los Angeles Harbor. If you want to learn about what it was really like to work on a merchant ship, this is one of the few places it's possible. And it's a great place to learn about the real patriotism, men who saw a lot of action.

Plus, Spirit has boats available for group charters. Check the website for the most up-to-date cruising schedule.

Marine Mammal Care Center: Hospital for Sea Life

It's not on the water, but it's on a hill overlooking the water. The Marine Mammal Care Center at Fort MacArthur is a hospital for ill, injured, and orphaned marine mammals. These include California sea lions, northern elephant seals, harbor seals, and northern fur seals. The animals are treated and when possible released back into the ocean. You'll get to see these great creatures up close (but through a fence) as they progress in their recoveries. Helpful volunteers are on hand to explain the work and answer questions about the animals.

Sail on a Tall Ship

Los Angeles Maritime Institute (LAMI) operates the only twin brigantines in the world, the Irving Johnson and the Exy Johnson, the official tall ships and maritime ambassadors of the City of Los Angeles, as well as the Swift of Ipswich. LAMI also is home to the Topsail youth leadership program. The vessels go out on family adventure, sunset, and pot luck sunset sails and participants get a chance to pull lines. This month there's a Fathers' Appreciation Sail on June 15. And the ships will be out for the Fourth of July Fireworks, which you can experience on the deck of a sailing ship. Check its web site for the rest of the sailing calendar.

See the View at Pt. Fermin Lighthouse Historic Site and Museum

The lighthouse was built in 1874 and served as a warning to mariners about the cliffs and rocks around it as they made their way in, out, and past the growing Los Angeles Harbor. This Victorian Stick Style building, which housed the light keepers' families as well as the large light and lens, is beautifully restored and preserved with artifacts showing the way of life. The lighthouse is open Tuesday through Sunday from 1-4 p.m. It is closed on major holidays and when there are special events in Pt. Fermin Park, where it is located. Admission is free, but a donation is requested. Tours are offered at 1, 2, and 3 p.m. Children shorter than 40 inches are not admitted into the lighthouse's tower.

Walk the White Point Tidepools

The shoreline teems with life and the tidepools at White Point Beach are a great place to see it up close. You're on your own with this activity, but it's close to the shore and can be lots of fun. Be careful of the waves, though. You'll want to park at the bottom of the bluffs in the parking. The charges range from $2 to $10.

You'll Find All You Need for Sailing to and from LA

Plenty of options for mariners

San Pedro, located in Los Angeles Harbor, is one of the favorite small craft destinations on the West Coast. It's got lots of outstanding marinas with great services and dining, shopping, and attractions are close by.

Here are some key contacts for mariners sailing into Los Angeles Harbor:

- Coast Guard Station LA/Long Beach at 310-833-1600
- Harbor Master 310-510-0535
- Marine Operator VHF 24 or 26
- Los Angeles Yacht Club, 285 Whalers Walk, Waterfront. 310-831-1203, www.LAYC.org

Small Craft Berths & Anchorages

Los Angeles Harbor has many different yacht marinas available, including eight with guest slips.

Slips are located in two different areas of the harbor: in San Pedro west of the Main Channel and in Wilmington on the eastern end of Los Angeles Harbor's portion of Los Cerritos Channel.

The recommended marina is: Cabrillo Way Marina

It's located at Berths 42-43 on the Waterfront, off Miner Street, conveniently just south of 22nd Street. 310-514-4985, www.CabrilloWay.com.

Cabrillo Way Marina is the closest small craft facility to Catalina Island and provides the shortest route to and from the channel.

Other berths are available in LA Harbor, which includes both San Pedro and Wilmington. And guest berths are available for visitors in many parts of the harbor. Check www.VisitSanPedro.org for a list.

Los Angeles Yacht Club Invites Mariners

Also, all mariners are welcomed to the weekly public luncheons on Wednesday at Los Angeles Yacht Club. There's always a speaker on a subject of nautical or community interest. The club serves a three-course lunch for $20 and the bar is available. For information or reservations, visit the Los Angeles Yacht Club website at www.LAYC.org.

Sacred Grounds Coffee House

A San Pedro original

Ask anyone around San Pedro where you can get a great cup of coffee at a great price and they'll tell you that would be at Sacred Grounds, 468 W. 6th Street, Downtown.

Owner Dave Lynch opened the business in 1995 and has had the same employees almost as long. It's the kind of place where you can satisfy your craving for coffee with lots of coffee drinks like cappuccino, iced coffee, and lattes along with a great selection of teas. And to complement your drink there is a large selection of bagels, croissants, and delicious pastries. You may even be in luck if Tracy has made his specialty tiramisu cake. And if you are vegan-conscious Sacred Grounds has a variety of rolls and muffins just for you.

Hungry for more than a muffin? It has delicious salads and sandwiches, which you can have to go or you can enjoy the good vibes of this one-of-a-kind atmosphere and catch up on what's going on and get the latest San Pedro news. You have plenty of time during the day to stop in because Sacred Grounds is open 365 days of the year from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. (Sundays 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.). It hosts open mic night on Tuesdays starting at 7:30 p.m. Show off your vocal talents, poetry readings, or guitar skills (or your other performance skills).

Sacred Grounds also does a wide range of catering from coffee and rolls to a hot sit-down meal for breakfast lunch, or dinner. It is the official caterer for the Warner Grand Theatre.

So, if you are in the mood for a delicious fresh roasted cup of coffee, good conversation, and atmosphere you need to head over to Sacred Grounds. Remember, it's pretty much always open to greet you with a warm welcome and a hot cup of coffee. The phone number is 3110-514-0080.
