

A young boy with brown hair is sliding down a white water slide. He is shirtless and wearing blue and white striped swim trunks with orange and green accents. His arms are raised in the air, and he has a joyful expression. The slide is set against a backdrop of lush green tropical foliage, including large palm fronds and other plants. The scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a warm day at a water park.

The Arts

The first Thursday of each month is a great start for the area's arts activities and events. That's when Downtown San Pedro hosts its monthly Art Walk. Galleries and studios are open, there's entertainment, and restaurants offer specials. It begins around 6 p.m. Visit the San Pedro Art Association's First Thursday Gallery at 437 W. 6th Street. And the association's artists are also at CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles every First Thursday. There's a free tour from the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, 390 W. 7th Street. www.1stThursday.com.

San Pedro's local theater company, Little Fish Theatre, has great shows. It's also the organization that produces the annual Shakespeare by the Sea series.

"Dead Accounts" opens on May 16-June 9, and the side-splitting "The Nerd" will be running from July 3-28. Then "The Lonesome West" will be on show from August 22-September 15. And shows continue throughout the year.

Little Fish Theatre is located at 777 S. Centre Street, Downtown. 310-507-0269, www.LittleFishTheatre.org.

This year's Shakespeare by the Sea festival will present "The Comedy of Errors," opening June 13 and "Henry V," opening June 20. The plays are presented at a variety of locations throughout the area and admission is free. 310-217-7596, www.ShakespeareByTheSea.org.

Dining

Food from around the world

San Pedro Cafe, at 605 S. Pacific Avenue, is well-known (and well-loved) for breakfast and lunch. And now it's open for dinner with a full menu that includes Croatian specialties like cabbage rolls and cro-mo (Croatian mostaccioli). It's right in the middle of Uptown Pacific Avenue and it's well worth a visit. (You'll find dinner there Thursday through Sunday.) www.WeLoveSPC.com.

It's hard to know where to start with Babouch Moroccan Cuisine. It brings an exotic and international flair to fun. That's where you'll find belly dancing. There's happy hour—and on Tuesdays it lasts all evening with drink and appetizer specials. The dinners are amazing with fresh, authentic ingredients masterfully prepared. It's convenient to all of San Pedro and the Peninsula at 810 S. Gaffey Street, San Pedro. 310-831-0246, www.BabouchMoroccan.com.

If you love Mexican food, you'll really love Jolly Burrito. It's much more than burritos (but its burritos are amazing). It's open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. From carne asada and al pastor to pollo and vegetarian options, this is Mexican food prepared authentically and with great care. Dine-in, takeout, and delivery are available. Jolly Burrito, 726 S. Pacific Avenue, Uptown. 310-832-9196, www.JollyBurrito.com.

Nightlife

Jazz, jazz, and more jazz at The Whale & Ale, 327 W. 7th Street. On Friday nights you can hear The Paul Gormley Trio, a world-class group of musicians who play traditional jazz that you'll love. On Saturday nights, Markus Carlton plays beautiful jazz guitar in the pub. Check it out at the pub's website www.WholeAndAle.com.

If you want a real San Pedro experience, definitely make it a point to visit Godmother's Saloon at 301 W. 7th Street, on the corner of Centre Street, Downtown. Music many nights. Nice people and fun times every day and night. Great drinks.

There's late night fun at San Pedro Brewing Company. Fridays are game night. Pick out a game and show your skills. And every Saturday is late night music. Sometimes a live local band and sometimes a hot DJ. And always some of the best beers and really great food and service. It's at 331 W. 6th Street, Downtown. Call 310-831-5663 or visit www.SanPedroBrewing.com.

Every Wednesday is Open Mic Night at the Red Men Wigwam Lodge at Pt. Fermin. The event gets underway at 6:30 p.m. and musicians, comedians, and all other types of entertainment are welcomed. The Red Men Wigwam Lodge is located at 543 Shepard Street, Peninsula. Take a look at www.SPWigWam.org.

Banning Museum

Find out how the "Father of Los Angeles Harbor" and his family lived during the days of the U.S. Civil War.

Phinneas Banning was a Union Army general and founder of the harbor at Wilmington who built a beautiful Greek Revival mansion in to demonstrate his confidence that the nation would endure.

And the mansion has endured as a museum in Banning Park. It's open to the public daily for tours. Its rooms are decorated as they were during the Banning family's residence there. The visitor center was once the family's schoolhouse. There's a livery on the grounds that's used as a museum and for special events.

Visit at 401 E. M Street, Wilmington.

Family Fun

All Summer Long

Summer never lasts long enough. Make the most of it with the great family attractions around San Pedro, the LA Harbor and Palos Verdes Peninsula communities, and Catalina Island.

While at Cabrillo Beach, don't miss San Pedro's outstanding aquarium. It's a marine research facility that makes things interesting and educational for children and adults alike. The Cabrillo Marine Aquarium offers an extensive regular series of educational activities and programs for all ages and lots of exhibits to see in the 21,000- square foot facility designed by noted architect Frank Gehry. It houses the largest collection of Southern California marine life on display in the world, an outdoor tide pool touch tank, teaching laboratory, auditorium, research lab, and gift shop. And there's a regular series of programs that will interest the whole family.

And Cabrillo Marine Aquarium is the epicenter for a Southern California tradition: The Running of the Grunion. That's when little silver fish arrive on the beach to mate. The aquarium has a special program every night the grunion run. It begins at 8 p.m. in the auditorium with an informative presentation. Then it's on to the beach to watch this natural event.

Grunion runs (and aquarium programs on it) are: Tuesday, May 7 and Monday, May 20 (closed season) and Wednesday, June 5 and Wednesday, June 19 (open season). In closed season, grunion may not be taken; but in the two open season dates, you can gather grunion with your hands and put them in buckets to take home to fry up and eat. It's all explained during the Cabrillo Marine Aquarium programs.

The Fanfare Fountain is a great place for the children to cool off in the daytime and a show for the whole family—especially at night when the lights come on. It's actually two fountains, both with synchronized music and lights, that put on beautiful musical shows. You can't swim in the fountains, but a walkway passes between them that, if you venture through it, you've got a good chance of a drenching, or at least a few sprinkles. Head south on the Waterfront Promenade and you'll find an interactive fountain at 2nd Street that pops right out of the ground and you can get as wet as you want. There's an hour's free parking at the World Cruise Center lot. ($2 per hour after the first hour, up to a maximum of $18 per day.)

Old Fire Station 36 Museum is a great museum includes remarkable Los Angeles Fire Department apparatus, artifacts from the San Pedro area, and a store with souvenirs. It's located in what's commonly known as San Pedro City Hall, but it's actually the City of Los Angeles Municipal Building. And it's a building that will look familiar to you from the many films and television episodes that have used it as a backdrop. The museum is open Saturdays from 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Everyone loves the Los Angeles Maritime Museum, located in the former Municipal Ferry Building at the foot of 6th Street at the Waterfront. The museum has great exhibits about the growth of the harbor, an incredible collection of highly detailed professional ship models, and a children's reading area—plus lots more. Open Tuesday through Sunday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Take a short trip to Wilmington and you can find remarkable Civil War history.

Do not miss The Banning Museum. It was built in 1864 and has been carefully preserved and restored. The docents will tell you all about life and style in this beautiful Domestic Greek Revival house. It's located in Banning Park.

And just down the street is Drum Barracks, the Western outpost of the Union Army during the Civil War. Guided tours available.

Along the rocky shores facing the Catalina Channel you'll discover Pt. Fermin Lighthouse, an 1874 Victorian stick style structure. It's been restored to show how lighthouse keepers lived during its history, until its light was turned off in 1941. Located in Pt. Fermin Park at the foot of Gaffey Street.

Note: Follow the warnings on the walls around Pt. Fermin. Do not climb over any walls in the area. Sunken City is adjacent. Do not climb over or around fences in this area.

The Marine Mammal Care Center at Fort MacArthur is a hospital for ill, injured, and orphaned marine mammals, such as California sea lions, northern elephant seals, harbor seals, and northern fur seals (like the sea lions seen at right). The animals are treated and when possible released back into the ocean. You'll get to see these great creatures up close (but through a fence) as they progress in their recoveries. Helpful volunteers are on hand to explain the work and answer questions about the animals.
