On the cover: Docked by F. Dennis Clarke of the National Watercolor Society

The Arts

San Pedro City Ballet is where Misty Copeland, principal dancer of the American Ballet Theatre got her start. And on Saturday, June 2, you'll have the opportunity to see wonderful young dancers in the the school's Spring Recital.

It will be at the historic Art Deco Warner Grand Theatre, 478 W. 6th Street, Downtown beginning at 2 p.m. Information and tickets are available at www.SanPedroCityBallet.org.

The First Thursday of the month is San Pedro's renowned Art Walk. Galleries and studios will be open and there will be entertainment all around and specials in the restaurants.

Begin your evening at the San Pedro Visitor Center, 225 W. 6th Street, Downtown, where you'll see an exhibit by a San Pedro Art Association member.

There's a free guided walking tour beginning at the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, 390 W. 7th Street. Get info at www.1stThursday.com.

Discover This Month National Watercolor Society

San Pedro is home to the National Watercolor Society Gallery, one of the world's leading organizations for watercolor artists. And continuing this month is the annual Members Exhibition. The works are amazing--you won't believe they are watercolors. We feature a watercolor from the exhibition called "Docked" by F. Dennis Clarke on this month's cover.

The artists come from all over the country and paint scenes that reflect their experiences and points of view.

The gallery and show are open Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday Noon-4 p.m. It's located at 915 S. Pacific Avenue in Uptown Pacific Avenue. The exhibition continues through June 20.

Well worth a visit!

Nightlife

Markus Carlton plays jazz guitar. And his talent is pretty amazing. You can catch him every Saturday beginning at 6:30 p.m. He brings new material, jazz, and blues standards. That's at the Whale & Ale British Restaurant and Pub, 327 W. 7th Street Downtown. 310-832-0363, www.WholeAndAle.com.

The spot for good times. Very good times. That's Godmother's Saloon at 301 W. 7th Street, on the corner of Centre Street, Downtown. This old-school bar is known for its great selection of beers, great music, friendly people, friendly place. Give it a try and you'll be back.

Got talent? Want to see people who do? Every Wednesday evening is Open Mic Night at the Red Man Wigwam Lodge at 543 Shepard Street on the Peninsula. Musicians and pretty much every other type of entertainment are welcomed to the stage beginning at 6:30. It's all free and it's all a lot of fun.

Dining

Where Dining Is an Experience

Ports O' Call Waterfront Dining offers a front row seat on the Los Angeles Harbor Main Channel in a classic setting. Brunch lunch, and dinner daily. Area's best happy hour. South's Bay's best Sunday brunch. At 1200 Nagoya Way, Ports O' Call Village, Waterfront. 310-833-3553, www.PortsOCallDining.com

22nd Street Landing Seafood Grill & Bar has the corner on great views over the marina and the best seafood in the South Bay at 141-A W. 22nd Street, Cabrillo Marina, San Pedro Waterfront. 310-548-4400

Terranea Resort is California's finest oceanfront resort also has eight wonderful dining venues at 100 Terranea Way, Rancho Palos Verdes, Peninsula. 866-802-8200

The Admiral Risty sits right on the end of the Palos Verdes Peninsula with ocean views--even the occasional whale or dolphin passing by. The Admiral Risty is located at 31250 Palos Verdes Drive West, Peninsula. 310-377-0050, www.AdmiralRisty.com. 866-802-8200

Have Your Summer Fun On the Water

The Beach Boys had it right when they sang about how great summer is in Southern California. And nowhere in So Cal has more to do on the water than San Pedro.

Whether you're a sailor, a surfer, or someone who prefers something more leisurely, San Pedro has what you're looking for.

Buccaneer Yacht Club

is a great place to learn to sail, race, and meet friendly people. It hosts exciting racing events each month and competes with other area yacht clubs weekly. Regular members are eligible to race under the Buccaneer burgee in other yacht clubs' races. Plus, it offers a range of social activities. You don't have to be a buccaneer to go on the water!

Los Angeles Yacht Club is historic (Humphrey Bogart was a member), has a beautiful club house, and a full schedule of racing and other activities. Plus, it's got certified sailing classes. And you don't have to own a boat to belong. LAYC has a community sailing membership category And you can experience the club at its Wednesday Luncheons that are open to the public. There's always a speaker on an interesting nautically-related topic, great conversation, and an outstanding lunch. Check the club's website at www.LAYC.org for the schedule and call the club office at 310-831-1203 for reservations.

On the Water

Experience a Tall Ship! Los Angeles Maritime Institute operates the only twin brigantines in the world (they're the city's official tall ships and maritime ambassadors) and it offers family sails, adventure sails, and other opportunities for the public to experience its classic ships—and maybe even help the crew pull a line.

Stand up! Because in addition to sailing there is paddling and you don't have to be an expert, especially when it comes to stand up paddle boarding, or what is called "SUP."

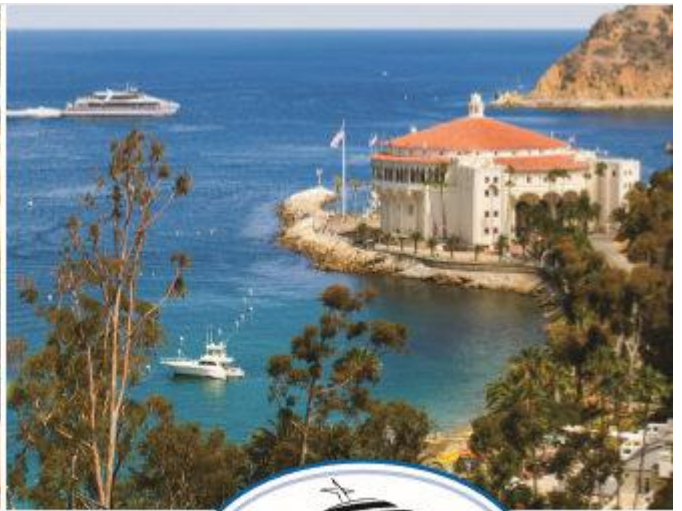

Take a two-hour session on the flat, serene water in sunny San Pedro, California. You will learn everything you need to know about stand-up paddle boarding including paddling, stroke technique, tips to maintain balance, turning and most importantly...how to deal with the wind.

Board and paddle are provided. You bring swim trunks, sunblock, and a t-shirt.

And the lessons and rentals take place on clean, calm, serene waters of Cabrillo Marina, located less than a mile from Cabrillo Beach and less than two miles from Ports of Call. This is the ideal location to get in some exercise while you visit the South Bay!

Wade also offers surfing lessons and a whole lot more.

A STORY OF THE AMERICAN DREAM

Lived out in San Pedro

This year marks a double anniversary for San Pedro.

One-hundred years ago, Joseph M. Mardesich and partners established their fish cannery on Terminal Island. And 80 years ago, he dedicated the Victory Arch (VA) monument at San Pedro High School.

If you're of a certain age and you've eaten a tuna fish sandwich, it came from Terminal Island and likely from that cannery that would eventually become Starkist.

Mr. Mardesich and his cannery are featured prominently in the Los Angeles Maritime Museum (LAMM) permanent exhibit, "Caught, Canned and Eaten: The History of San Pedro's Tuna & Canning Industry," including a bronze bust commissioned in 1959 and dedicated at LAMM in 2009. The exhibit preserves and commemorates the venerated industry that, in its heyday when Terminal Island was thriving with as many as 23 canneries, provided upwards from 5,000 jobs locally and fed the nation and the world with tuna being a primary food source.

Joseph Mardesich is a story of the American dream. He was born in 1889 and emigrated to the U.S. in 1903, from Komiza, a town on the island of Vis in the Adriatic Sea off the Dalmatian coast of Croatia (former Yugoslavia) and eventually ended up in San Pedro.

And it was through his community involvement that the VA found its way to the San Pedro High School athletic field. He was a strong supporter of the school's sports programs.

In early 1937 Mr. Mardesich learned that a former post office in downtown Los Angeles was being razed and with was his sense of patriotism and passion propelling him, after much negotiation with the government, he purchased the building's archways and stone

On the Water

Got a boat? Then you're going to want to moor it at Cabrillo Way Marina.

The harbor's newest marina is located nearer to open water than any other spot in the area, offering the shortest route to the LA entrance/Angels Gate and the quickest run to Catalina Island. It is a great place to begin your visit to the region's coastal sites.

Get your body into the water! San Pedro has outstanding beaches, each with its own natural features and character.

Cabrillo Beach has a long expanse of calm, sandy shoreline, protected by the Los Angeles Harbor breakwater. But move just outside the breakwater and you'll find open waters that are renowned for their great windsurfing and other water sports. This area is known as Hurricane Gulch because of its strong (but not really hurricane-strength) winds.

Cabrillo Beach has picnic facilities available in grassy areas under shady trees. At the end of the harbor entrance breakwater is Angel's Gate Lighthouse. And you can fish along the breakwater, too.

Cabrillo Beach is also home to the Cabrillo Beach Marine Aquarium, a well-regarded and very active aquarium and marine research facility. The aquarium offers an extensive regular series of educational activities and programs for all ages.

White Point and Royal Palms County Beaches, located at 1799 Paseo del Mar, is a Los Angeles County park with picnic areas. The beach is rocky with many tide pools along the shore.

The parking area is located at the bottom of a steep bluff and varies from $2 to $10 per day.

American Dream...

eagles with the ambition of erecting a unique monument at the SPHS campus and to be called the VA.

After making its way through official channels (with a detour), the school district approved a proposal to make the monument a historic cultural landmark. Mr. Mardesich, Sr. passed away in 1951. One of 14 children - only four survived - he helped his siblings (two sisters and a brother) emigrate to the U.S. once he had established himself in business.

"My grandfather's motto was, 'No challenge too great' that inspires me to this day. It took immense diligence and fortitude to create this extraordinary monument that is a very European tradition, like the Arc de Triomphe," Stephanie Mardesich, who continues her grandfather's legacy of service to the community, said.

There is nothing like the VA at any school in the Los Angeles region or the entire state. The massive granite structure weighs over two tons and stands over 30 feet high.

On June 12 Miss Mardesich will present a floral wreath at the VA commemorating the 80th anniversary.

The VA has withstood the test of time and along with the Mardesich family, spans a century of San Pedro life and culture. It will continue to inspire and the canneries and noble fishing industry remembered thanks to the LAMM exhibit and efforts of those citizens who care about and preserve history for posterity.

Starkist Cannery--The history of the tuna industry is chronicled at the Los Angeles Maritime Museum, located in the former Municipal Ferry Building, which many of the workers used to commute to their jobs in the tuna canneries.
