The Arts

An Evening With Oscar has become a tradition on Catalina Island in the elegant vintage Catalina Casino Ballroom. This Sunday, March 4, there's a red carpet arrival from 4:30 to 5 p.m. followed by a buffet dinner, silent and live auctions, and viewing of the Academy Awards telecast. It all benefits the Catalina Island Medical Center and is a great event to attend just in case your invitation to the ceremony at the Dolby Theatre got lost or you don't want to hassle with the traffic. Get information and reservations at 310-510-5160 or take a look at www.VisitCatalinaIsland.com

Got a ukelele? Just like the music or want to have fun? Either way, you'll want to enjoy the Ukelele Hootenanny at The Corner Store, 1118 W. 37th Street on the Peninsula. Bring your instrument or just sing along. It's held the first Sunday of each month and kicks off at 3 p.m. While you're there, enjoy some great food and drink.

Dining

How about award-winning dining?

Ports O' Call Waterfront Dining has been consistently voted as having the best happy hour, best Sunday brunch, best banquet facilities. It's at 1200 Nagoya Way in Ports O' Call Village. (Be aware of the new entrance to the village at 22nd Street.)

22nd Street Seafood Grill & Bar is award-winning for its (you guessed it) seafood! And the views across the Marinas are amazing. You'll find the restaurant at 141 W. 22nd Street on the Waterfront.

The Whale & Ale British Restaurant and Pub has been honored for best fish & chips, best shepherd's pie, and best apple pie in Southern California. The Whale & Ale is at 327 W. 7th Street in Downtown San Pedro.

The Admiral Risty is renowned for dinner, brunch, and its wine list--all multiple award winners, including from the Southern California Restaurant Writers. Admiral Risty is at 31250 Palos Verdes Drive West, Rancho Palos Verdes 310-377-0050.

Friday evenings feature local favorite musicians Andy & Renee. With $4 drink specials and a discounted dining menu, there's everything to like. Ports O' Call Waterfront Dining is at 1200 Nagoya Way in Ports O' Call Village.

Like to laugh? You'll laugh a lot when It's Comedy Tonight returns to Old San Pedro's Machine Art Studio 446 W. 6th Street, Downtown on Friday, March 16 beginning at 7. It's a line up of diverse comedians and admission is $5. Get tickets at www.ComedyInSanPedro.Eventbrite.com

If There's a Breeze ...

Then It's a Good Day to Go Sailing.

The racing season is now in full swing in San Pedro!

And The Harbor Cup, a three-day regatta hosted by Los Angeles Yacht Club, Port of Los Angeles, and California Maritime Academy, is the inspiring cornerstone. It will be held March 9-11.

This race, now in its 10th year is competitive and prestigious. There is an actual Harbor Cup. It's a beautiful perpetual trophy.

Ten co-ed college teams from across the nation and Europe will battle for three days in what has proven to be one of the leading competitions of its kind. College level regattas are typically sailed in small one or two-person dinghies, in protected waters.

But in 2008, Los Angeles Yacht Club and the Port of Los Angeles introduced this rare opportunity for high-level offshore keelboat racing, with large competitive co-ed teams.

Invitations are highly-coveted and this year's field includes: defending champions California Maritime Academy, College of Charleston, University of Hawaii, Maine Maritime Academy, Massachusetts Maritime Academy, US Naval Academy, University of California Santa Barbara, University of Southern California, University of South Florida, and Ireland's Cork Institute of Technology.

Teams of eight, including at least two female crew, will race in Catalina 37s – a one-design fleet of sailboats utilized in the prestigious Congressional Cup regatta.

The series will consist of 10 windward-leeward races on the Pacific Ocean course outside Angels' Gate.

Racers will enjoy the hospitality of LAYC: lodging, meals, and special events – including a Saturday night crew and alumni dinner with guest speaker Terry Hutchinson, a champion sailor since his own college years, Hutchinson is a two-time Rolex Yachtsman of the Year.

LAYC was founded in 1901 and is one of oldest and most respected institutions on the West Coast, hosting events such as the Harbor Cup and Transpacific Yacht Race.

And there's lots of other racing going on at the club. The George Griffith Sailing Series continues March 24 and May 12. In

The Wind In Your Hair ...

September there's the Catch Me Who Can Coastal Race and the Pacific Coast Championship Mercury Class. And the season wraps up with the Harbor Series Howland's Landing Layover Race.

Howland's Landing is LA Yacht Club's

Race, LAYC's George Griffith Series, and other races. This is a yacht club that's very welcoming and where the members are glad to help people learn to sail or improve their skills.

Buccaneer promotes Corinthian Sailing, spot on Catalina Island.

And Buccaneer Yacht Club sponsors or participates in racing nearly every week beginning with its Race Series #1 and followed by the fun Games of Luck Dinghy which encourages amateur sailing (no paid professional sailors on board), friendship, competition, and fun.

Ask about the Sailing Alliance that undertakes weekly sailing, crewing of captainin and the club's participation in Cabrillo Beach Yacht Club and other clubs' events.

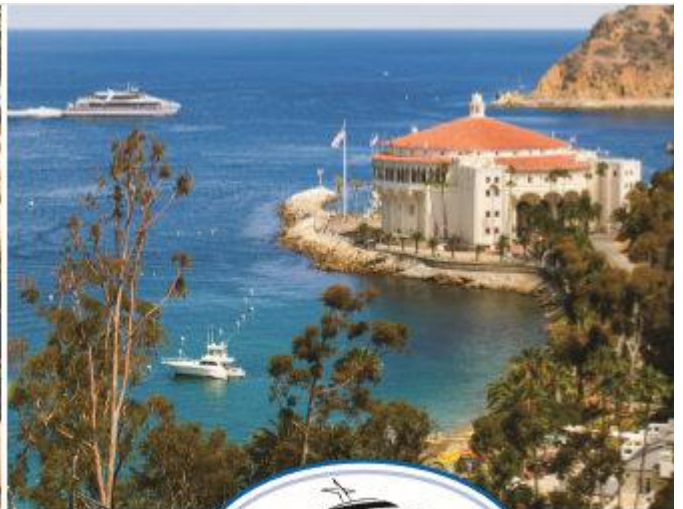

Pt. Fermin Park is a pretty much ideal spot to view many of the yacht races. The park, at the point of the San Pedro peninsula, is set among large trees overlooking the portion of the Pacific Ocean where most racing takes place or passes through.
